

Energy Clearing

Remove Black Magic, Curses, Evil Eyes, Psychic Attacks, Spells, Hexes and Jinxes

The energy attacks

Spells, hexes, curses, evil eyes and psychic attacks are all different types of energy attacks that can happen. As such there are many other forms of energy attacks that can be done, but these are the most common ones.

Spells: Ritualistic attempts to manifest a specific outcome by directing energy towards a target, which can be either helpful or harmful.

Hexes: Short-term, targeted "bad luck" or inconveniences meant to punish a person for a specific perceived slight.

Curses: Deep-seated, long-term malevolent intentions designed to cause sustained misfortune, often persisting until a specific condition is met or the energy is broken. It is a structured intentional harm. It is often repeated and maintained for a continuous bad-luck in one, all or many areas of life. Curses can also be transferred through the family line. The difference between a curse and a spell work/hex is that curses are designed to last longer.

The Evil Eye: A spontaneous burst of unconscious malice, jealousy, or envy that "pierces" the target's aura through a look, causing sudden depletion or "bad luck." Effects are often sudden back luck, fatigue, headaches and obstacles. Evil eye can have effects as strong as a spell work as it stems from raw emotion of jealousy and envy. Spell work uses steps and symbols and psychic attacks are conscious thoughts, but evil eye is a direct emotional discharge with no rhyme or logic. It doesn't have a properly formulated intention, it's just pure hate that stemmed out of jealousy and envy that is unleashed upon the victim.

Psychic Attacks: A conscious, continuous projection of negative thoughts or "thought-forms" aimed at someone's energy field to weaken their mental or emotional state. It is a deliberate attempt to send harmful energy to someone by obsessive thinking. One needs to have the psychic powers to project a psychic attack onto someone else. It is always intentional and results in strong anxiety, energy drain, nightmares and emotional disturbances to the victims. However, like evil eye, it can also cause sudden back luck.

These attacks enter our existence and create a block in the region they are programmed to affect. Every energy attack is a block. For example, a love spell will get stuck in the heart chakra space. Its intention is to create, generate and maintain the energies of love towards a specific person therefore this attack will get settled in the heart chakra. But because this is a mechanism it will act as a block as it settles down into our system, obstructing the internal energy flow within the system. Imagine a water pipe. If a small mechanism is placed inside the pipe to direct the flow of water to another pipe, the original pipe's flow becomes obstructed. This block then obstructs the energy flow from the chakra to its associated physical body organs leading to physical health issues.

Every form, type and kind of energy attacks settled down into the victim's system as a block obstructing the natural flow of energy in the system. You know that energy cannot be created. In order to manifest the intention that was programmed in the attack, the mechanism starts to pull the energies of the part of existence it is locked in. It transmutes the energies of the region into the energies of its programming which leads to energy depletion. The remaining energies of the region get utilised into transmuting the harmful energies that the block is generating. This means that within a few minutes to few hours of the mechanism of attack getting locked into our system, the region where it's locked into loses its energies and powers and becomes absolutely exhausted. The only time these energy attacks take is for the mechanism of attack to settle into the victim's system. Which again depending on a lot of factors, can be anywhere between a few seconds to a couple of days maximum.

Energy attacks, even the smallest ones, are capable of disrupting our whole systems. After manifesting the intention, they were programmed to deliver, most of them go dormant. They don't transmute or direct energy. They just lie there like a piece of rock blocking the energy flow. If you remember the explanations of different types of attacks, you will now understand that most attacks after their initial manifestation go dormant. Only those that are charged and programmed for long-term use remain active within the system. The long-term attacks need to be connected to a continuous energy supply source for them to remain active. Apart from our system, either an Energy Being is bound to do that, or the person who sent the attack remains actively involved in keeping the attack alive. These kinds of attacks either birth out of strong and powerful hate where the attacker is not able to move on at all or from a skilled spell caster who bound an Energy Being to keep the attack alive.

Energy blocks block our destinies from manifesting as well. Say, for example, you were meant to earn a lot of money, but someone cast an evil eye onto your finances, the money is wanting to flow in, but it gets blocked by the evil eye. So, all the money that was supposed to flow in is getting accumulated outside that block and as soon as you remove the block money manifests instantly into your life. This means that energy attacks cannot alter the destiny, they can just block it from manifesting (unless a specific spell to hinder or alter the destiny is done). What this also means is that when there are lessons or ill-effects of some planets shown in our horoscopes and the astrologers ask us to do rituals, chants or wear specific stones to combat its effects, the destiny gets blocked the same way, all the lessons or karmic punishments start to get accumulated, and your next lifetime destiny becomes worse than this lifetime's. If you have read my e-book on the art of praying, you will know that creating something against the destiny is almost impossible as it would take a force way stronger than the destiny to give you something you don't deserve or aren't ready for. So, all that happens by blocking the lessons and punishments from manifesting into your life is stagnancy. Nothing good really happens, but you start turning more and more negative day by day. You keep trying to cause a positive movement in your life, but the blockage of destiny blocks all the movements. It is my duty to say this, that all the ill-effects in the charts are only and solely meant for our growth. We learn, we transform, we grow. You stop the learning; the transformation and growth gets blocked too. But, when like me, you embrace the lessons, the same ill-effects turn into blessings when the lessons are learnt. The choice is always yours. Choose wisely!

Every energy healing should begin by the removal of blocks. You will find that at least 20% of your problems will get resolved by the removal of energy attacks, energy dominations and energy siphonings. I have seen these blocks on almost everyone. Which is why, the first thing I always make every client of mine do after the first session is a generalised cleansing prayer for 21 days (plus if any prayer was required to be done regarding the problem they had come to me with). The number of repetitions of the cleansing prayer will however depend on not how older the attack is, but how powerful it is.

My personal advice would be to initially do this prayer for 21 days continuously, and then do it once a week for life.

The power of prayers

My biggest block in my initial days of dealing with black magic and other forms of energy attacks was believing them to be too powerful and assuming removing them will require complicated rituals. But being a channel (the one who channels messages from the Divine Beings) my life got much easier. Divine Beings guided me through my claircognizance that neither are these attacks powerful nor removing them complicated. In fact, they taught me, that which is complicated is not real. There is literally no form and type of energy attack that cannot be removed through simple, yet well-worded prayers. The only problem I have seen people experience is consistency. Energy attacks create massive resistance within the victim stopping them to do any form of Divine Work, as the Divine forces will instantly remove and destroy them. Resistances can vary from irritation, tiredness, depression, anxiety to excessive excitement in doing something else. If you power through and do the prayer every single day for the set number of days, there is no way these energies will remain in your existence.

There is nothing more powerful than God and Divine Forces. You call upon them they come, you tell them what you want with clarity, they give. To understand the power of prayers, I would request you to check my e-book The Art of Praying on the website. All you need to understand and believe is that there is no black magic or energy attack possible in the Universe that is more powerful than the Divine Forces. Unfortunately, any kind of energy attack knows it better than us and that is why the first thing they block is our Divine Channel and our crown chakra. Which is why, sometimes even chanting mantras fail to help. The Divine Forces hear our plea, but they will never, under no circumstances force enter our existence. That's why we have to always begin by asking them to clear the Divine Channel and the crown chakra. The prayer that I have constructed for you begins by clearing these blocks.

When there is a heavy black magic, the prayer needs to be more detailed. Specifying who did the black magic and what was their intention accelerates the process magically. I will give an example of a specific detailed prayer to remove the black magic just so that in case any of you are suffering from it, you know how to construct your prayer.

Sample prayer:

Part 1:

I ask for all the psychic, esoteric, ethereal, spiritual, soul, karmic, verbal, energetic, mental, psychological, emotional, astral, etheric, creative, destructive, sexual and physical ways, tools, means, mediums, modes, instruments, mechanisms, rituals, ceremonies, forces, codes, programmings, inscriptions, conditionings, thoughts, feelings, emotions, energies, experiences, traumas, tortures, deaths, decaying, illnesses, sickness, memories, imprints, traces, effects, results, manifestations, loops, cycles, attachments, connections, relationships, bonds, enmeshments, entanglements, mergers, destinies, fates, timelines, realities, bindings, entrapments, cages, locks, seals, blinding, deafening, weapons, blocks, obstructions, chains, ropes, channels, tunnels, cords, ties, nooses, anchors, hooks, illusions, delusions, lies, manipulations, alterations, chaos, conflicts, fights, flights and thought-forms of all the spells, hexes, jinxes, curses, enchantments, charms, incantations, rituals, conjurations, bindings, sorcery, witchcraft, magic, spell-craft, occult, tantra, mantra, totka, jadu, kala jadu, vashikaran, maran, uchchtan, mohan, stambhan, hoodoo, voodoo, obeah, junu, alchemy, banishing, rootwork, attacks, evil eyes, psychic attacks, psychic projections, intentions and projections of, by, for and through

Part 1 of the prayer covers every form of attack all of its mechanisms, its effects and basically everything related to the attack there can be.

Part 2:

Name of the person. If you know it nothing like it, if you do not know who did the attack on you then you remove "by, for and through" and end part 1 at "of".

Part 3:

to block my success and financial abundance

This part clarifies the intention. You have to write the intention behind the black magic. Knowing intention is not at all difficult. All you have to do is observe exactly what is going wrong in your life and that's exactly what the abuser intended to do.

Part 4:

from every cell of my physical body, every fibre of my being, every layer of my existence, all of my minds, all of my neurological pathways, my fates, my destinies, my fortunes, my pasts, my presents, my futures, my environments, my surroundings, my atmospheres, all of my security systems and all of my timelines, across all dimensions, realities, realms, lifetimes, timelines and planes of existences.

This part is the closing statement that makes sure that the attack is removed from every part of your existence and from every plane, reality, realm, etc.

The black magic removal prayer should be done for 42 days.

Cleansing techniques:

There are many cleansing techniques there in the world that are all equally powerful and effective. What I have listed down are my favourite ones. These are optional and will definitely provide with additional help. You can choose to one, you can choose to none or you can choose to do them all. As long as you do the prayer regularly.

When using these techniques, a huge mistake people make is assuming that the herbs or incenses know what to do. You have to put the intention there as well. The shortest, simplest and clearest intention setting is:

“I ask ____ to clear away from my home/existence all the lower, negative, evil, ill, harmful, toxic, clutter, garbage, death, sickness, polluting, impure and contaminating entities, energies, spirits, beings, parasites, emotions, thoughts, feelings, tulpas, servitors and thoughtforms, across all dimensions, realities, realms, lifetimes, timelines and planes of existences. It is done. It is done. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you.”

Hold the sage, incense, salt, etc. whatever it is you are using in your hand before lighting it or pouring it into the water. Read the above prayer and then light the sage/incense or pour the salt into the water. Now these herbs know exactly what they are supposed to do. Putting the intention clearly is the key to activate their energetic powers. Until then they are just fragrances or seasoning.

Sage it away

Burn a California sage smudge stick and rotate it around your body in anticlockwise direction. Hold it in your hand and the hand movement should be stroking out (gesturing that you are removing the bad energies out of your existence). For physical space (home, office, land, etc.) start with the main entrance from the left (always go anticlockwise). Keep stroking the energies out.

Equally powerful as sage is the incense made out of cow dung. The technique would be similar, and the result will be equally effective.

Cleansing bath

Once a week, bathe with the following to remove all kinds of bad energies from your existence.

- 1 kg table salt or sea salt
- 7 lemons (juice)
- 1 bucket of water

Pour this water on your crown chakra with a mug (don't forget to wear a shower cap).

Everyday cleansing spray

Boil water on a stove and add crushed camphor. When camphor melts, remove the water from heat and allow it to cool.

Once cooled, add 1 whole lemon juice, a pinch of table salt, and mix it well.

Transfer the liquid to a spray bottle.

Use within a week (keep it refrigerated).

Spray it on the top of your head (wear a shower cap) and around the walls and corners of the house/office/etc.

This spray will instantly remove all kinds of bad energies.

Herbs mixture to ward off evil eye, black magic and psychic attacks

Grind together to make herbal powder:

- Dried red chilies
- Salt
- Camphor
- Black peppercorns
- Cloves
- Bay leaves
- Sage

There is no fixed quantity in this. Set an intention and sprinkle it at the corners of the house or make a small hex bag and put some of the mixture in it to carry with you.

Cleansing prayer

As stated earlier, do this prayer every day for 21 days. Then you can do it once a week. Before you begin reading the prayer just read it to understand the wordings once. I would also request you to google all the deities called upon and connect with them. You can light a candle and incense, or you cannot even take a shower, sit in your bed and read it. It is up to you. Except for the number of repetitions, there are no rules from mine or Divine Being's end.

"I call upon Mahakaal and Mahakali to bend time in my favour for the immediate, absolute, complete, permanent, irreversible and eternal manifestation of the following prayer.

I ask Goddess Kaalratri, Goddess Surkanda Devi, Goddess Chinnamasta Devi, Goddess Dhumavati, Goddess Baglamukhi, Goddess Kunjapuri Mata, Goddess Durga, Goddess Varahi, Goddess Saraswati, Goddess Chandrabhadni, Goddess Kali, Lord Shiva and Lord Kalbhairav for the immediate, absolute, complete, permanent, irreversible and eternal manifestation of the following prayer.

I ask you to immediately, completely, absolutely, permanently, irreversibly and eternally clear, remove and destroy all the lower, evil, negative, clutter, garbage, polluting, contaminating, ill, harmful and toxic entities, energies, spirits, being, parasites, tulpas, servitors and thoughtforms from my crown chakra and my Divine Channel, across all dimensions, realities, realms, lifetimes, timelines and planes of existences.
